

Internationalization of Korean Higher Education

Jun Young Kim, Ph.D.

Vice-Chairman, Korean Council for University Education (KCUE)

President, Sungkyunkwan University (SKKU)

KCUE HRK Forum, Bonn, Germany

July 4, 2013

CONTENTS

Internationalization of Korean Higher Education

- 1 German-Korean Exchanges
- 2 KCUE-HRK Collaboration History
- 3 Overview of Internationalization
- 4 Institutions for Internationalization
- 5 Korea's Internationalization Vision
- 6 Key Korean Government Policies
- 7 Future Prospects for Internationalization

PART 1

German-Korean Exchanges

- 130 years of diplomatic relations (since 1883)
- German participation in post-Korean War rebuilding
- Korean nurses and miners on guest worker program
- DAAD scholarships
 - Nam June Paik, Video Artist
- Korean-German trade: €27bn, Korea's 8th largest trade partner
- Korea's unique celebration of German reunification
 - Korea is divided and eager for a historical breakthrough
- Germany's gift of classical music to the world, including to Korea

PART 2

KCUE-HRK Collaboration History

- MoU signed in Seoul on 1 November 2006
- KCUE-HRK First Higher Education Policy Forum in Seoul on 2 October 2007
- Framework Agreement signed in Seoul on 5 October 2007
 - Exchanges of students and faculty
 - Joint-hosting of academic seminars
 - Exchanges of university-relevant information (including for degree verification)
- MoU renewed in January 2013 in Bonn
- Today: KCUE-HRK Second Higher Education Policy Forum, Bonn

PART 3

Overview of Internationalization

a Student Mobility

b Faculty Mobility

c Internationally Recognized Research

d University Reputation

OVERVIEW

Student Mobility

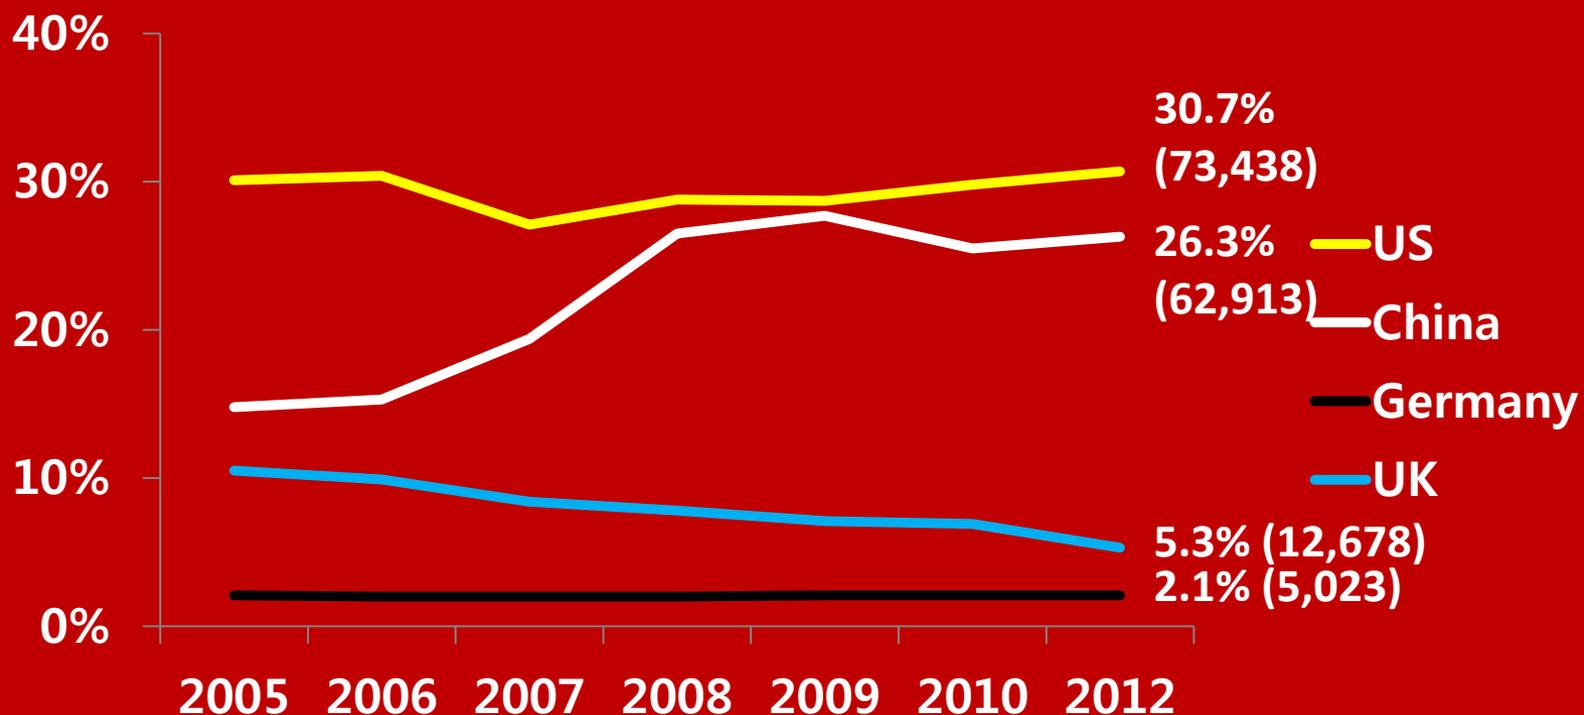

Percentage, relative to total Korean student population

OVERVIEW

Korean Students Overseas

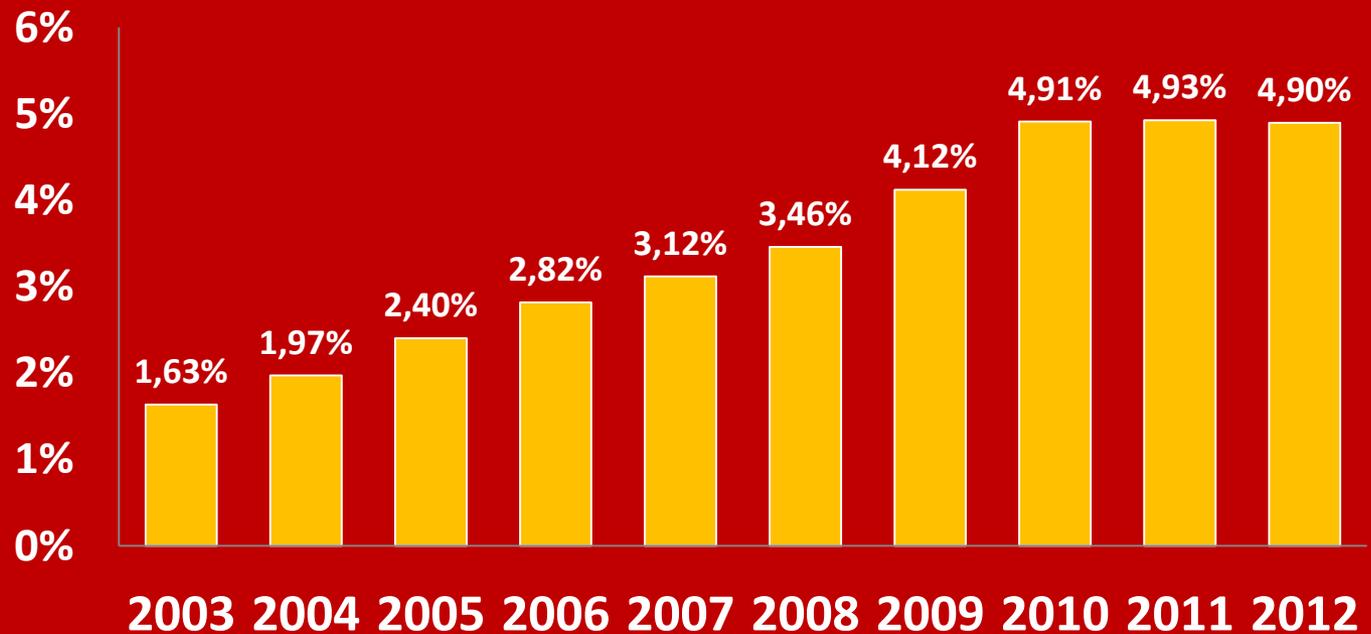

OVERVIEW

Faculty Mobility

Percentage International Faculty at Korean Universities

OVERVIEW

Internationally Recognized Research

Korean Share of SCI Publications (currently ranked 10th in the world)

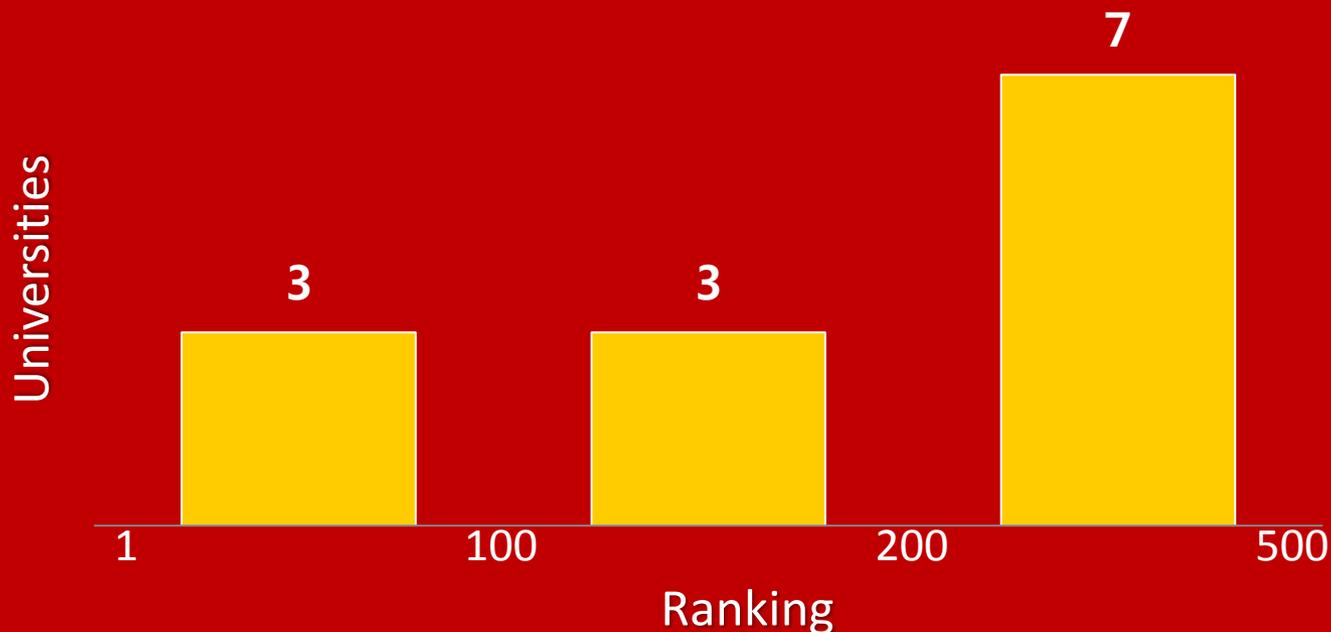

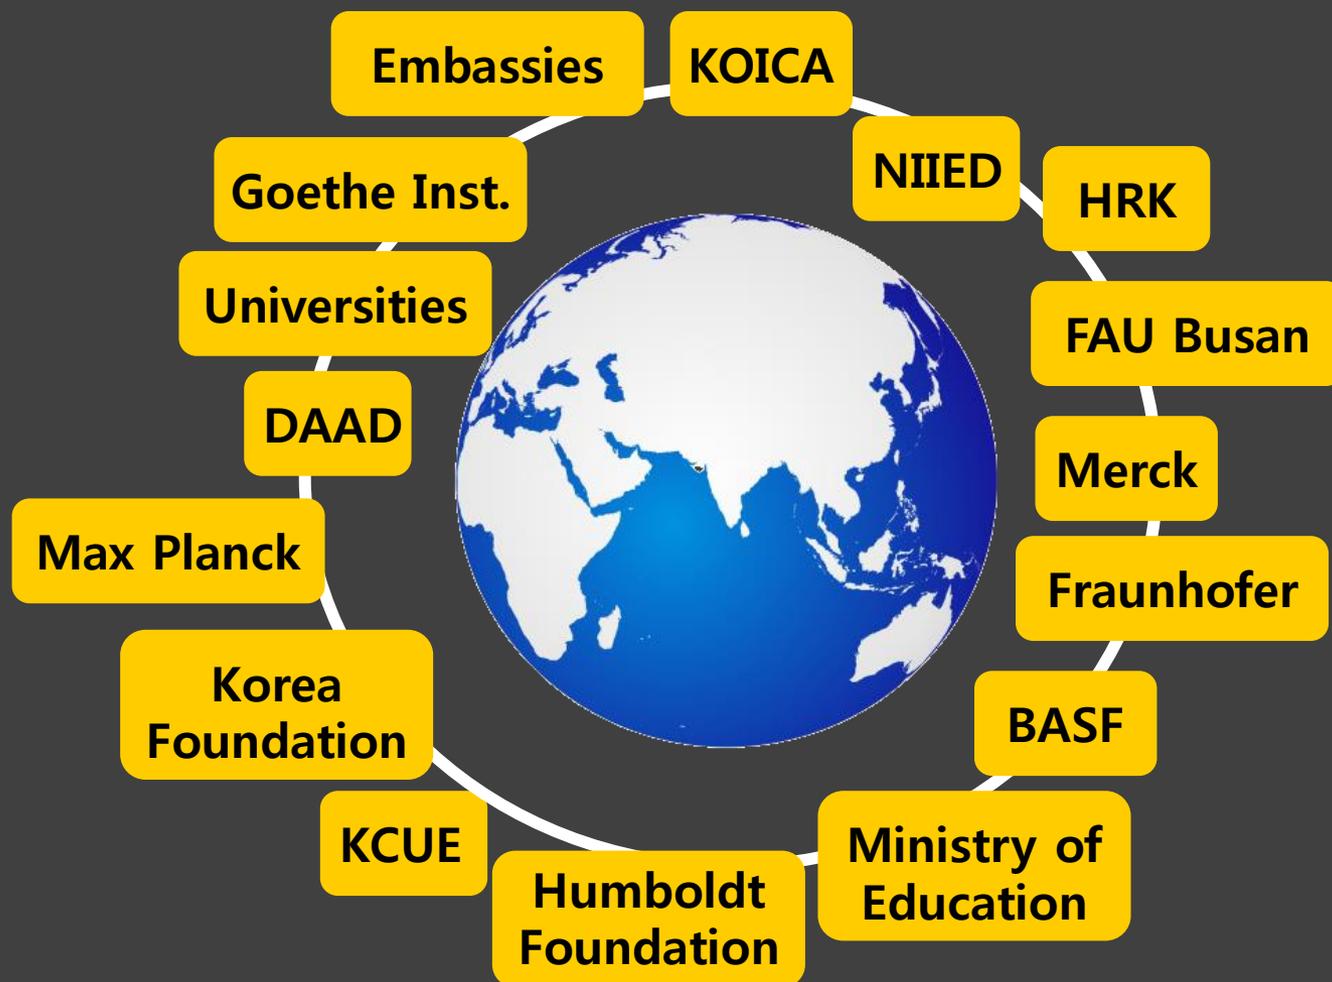

OVERVIEW

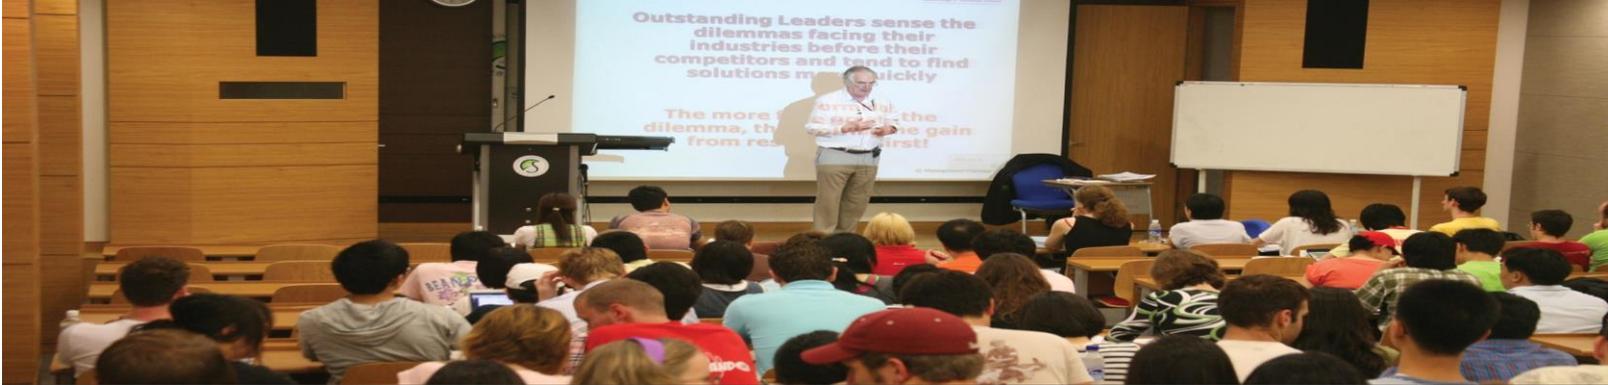

University Reputation

Korean Universities in QS World University Ranking (2012)

Institutions of Internationalization

PART 5

Korea's Internationalization Vision

Experiences: students experiencing and sharing diverse culture and languages in a learning community

Collaboration: working as a human family to solve global issues in climate change, energy, social justice, etc.

Participation: reaching out and supporting through ODA and people-to-people initiatives

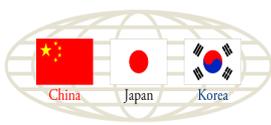

PART 6

Key Korean Government Policies

Brain Korea 21 (BK21)

- total investment of €2.3 billion, starting from 1999
- vehicle for internationalization to support mobility of students and faculty
- SCI publications rise from 3,765 per year (18th worldwide) to 53,591 per year (10th worldwide)

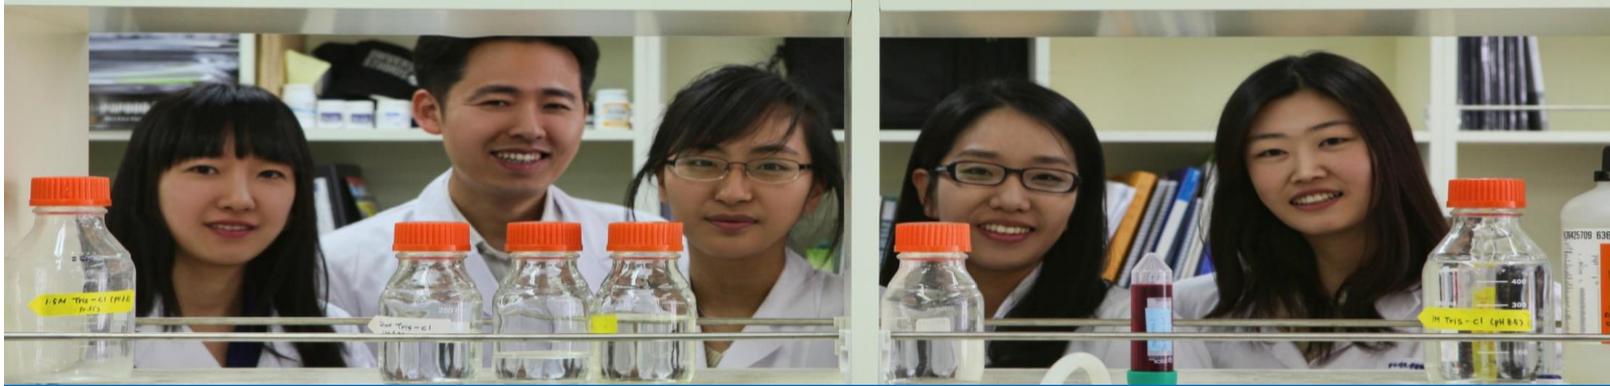

Campus Asia

- "Asia's Erasmus Program" between China, Korea and Japan
- 300 students exchanged per year through 10 consortia

Global Ph.D. Fellowship (GPF)

- €20,000 annual scholarship for Ph.D. students
- 295 top students selected annually

PART 6

Key Korean Government Policies

Global Fellowship Program (GFP)

290 students from emerging countries
Sharing Korea's development experience
Supported by Korea International Cooperation Agency (KOICA)

ASEM DUO Germany-Korea

Since 2000 Asia-Europe Summit II in Seoul
50 students and faculty exchanged each year (10% to Germany)

EU ICI ECP Germany-Korea

Structured exchanges of student and faculty
3-5 projects funded annually, 40 students exchanged during 4 years

PART 7

Future Prospects for Internationalization

DIVERSITY

- Diversity in education, research and academic-corporate collaboration
- High quality vocational and technical training

CUSTOMIZATION

- Programs that complement the unique strengths and philosophy of each other's institutions

OPENNESS

- Openness to international students and faculty
- Only 42% of German universities have ties with Korea
- Only 38% of Korean universities have ties with Germany

SERVICES

- Enhancing the quality of services for international faculty and students

Jun Young Kim, Ph.D.
President, Sungkyunkwan University (SKKU)

Danke Sehr!

감사합니다

Thank You!