Micha Teuscher re-elected for the second time as HRK spokesperson for the universities of applied sciences

Prof. Dr. Micha Teuscher, Rector of the Neubrandenburg University of Applied Sciences, will continue as Spokesperson of the Universities of Applied Sciences Member Group in the German Rectors' Conference (HRK). This is the second time he has been re-elected and he will remain on the HRK Executive Board for another two years.

Micha Teuscher is Professor of Business Management and Management Studies at the Neubrandenburg University of Applied Sciences and has held the post of Rector there since 2004. His area of expertise on the HRK Executive Board has been university admissions and he is also a member of the Standing Committee on Planning and Organization in the HRK.

Prof. Dr. Dieter Lenzen, the President of the University of Hamburg, was confirmed as the Spokesperson of the Universities Member Group in April.
