

02.6.2026

Author

NEWTON, Jethro

Title

A tale of two "qualitya" : reflections on the quality revolution in higher education

Publication year

2010

Source/Footnote

In: Quality in higher education. - 16 (2010) 1, S. 51 - 53

Inventory number

28166

Keywords

Qualitätssicherung ; Hochschule und Staat : allgemein

Abstract

This paper reflects on what we have learned about how quality has been received in higher education. The complexity of quality policy in terms of implementation is noted, as is the importance of front-line academics as policy users. The 'formal' and 'situated' meanings of quality are considered and the importance of context is emphasised. It is proposed that quality enhancement is a messy business and that achieving success with improvement initiatives presents challenges. (HRK / Abstract übernommen)